

Wine Spectator

CHÂTEAU DE PRESSAC St.-Emilion 2018

This red packs in some solid plum and blackberry preserve flavors, as well as a graphite edge for spine and really solid dark tobacco and anise notes buried through the finish, where smoldering herb and warm earth hints add a nice touch.

Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Carmenère and Malbec. Drink now through 2028. Tasted twice, with consistent notes. 8,500 cases made, 400 cases imported. (Jan 28, 2021)

WineSpectator.com