St Emilion 2000, 15 years on

2000 Château de Pressac – France, Bordeaux, Libournais, St. Émilion Grand Cru

I may have liked #19 more than most participants, and so the Château Pressac gave off its cooler location with somewhat strict tannins perhaps. But overall, a rather impressive wine that shows how it merits its new ranking as grand cru classé given its fine limestone terroir. (91 pts.)
